We are most likely to continue to be a successful school if teachers, parents and pupils agree with our aims (printed overleaf) and are willing to work together to achieve them.

This agreement sets out the commitments required of all parties.

School commitment:

We seek to achieve the aims of the school outlined overleaf by:

- Providing a broad, balanced and relevant curriculum, including the National Curriculum, modified to meet individual need.
- Ensuring a secure, disciplined caring environment.
- Maintaining effective communication between school and home and issuing an open invitation for parents to visit.
- Regularly reviewing the appropriateness of placement.
- Developing inclusive arrangements with other schools.

The School Aims

1. To enable our pupils to achieve their full potential.
2. To increase our pupils' knowledge of their immediate environment and the wider world in which they live.
3. To prepare pupils for the world of work and further education.
4. To facilitate eventual independent living in which pupils have the maximum possible control over their own lives.
5. To teach pupils an understanding of the benefits and responsibilities of good citizenship.
6. To develop pupils' individuality and self-esteem within a moral context.
7. To have the appropriateness of their educational provision under continuing review.
8. To develop inclusive arrangements with other schools.
9. To provide a resource for the wider community.
